WINEMAKERS SELECTION

*I have had a lot of fun putting together this wine list for our restaurant, not just because I get to be on the buying end of wine transactions for a change (as opposed to the selling end) but because it consists of many of my favourite wines. These are sourced from Australia as well as from all over the world. They are wines that I enjoy with friends and family and great food.
(Yes, I enjoy my own wine.
No, I don't drink it all the time!)*

Being someone who enjoys drinking a diverse range of varieties from many different wine regions, I could come up with a list that never ends. So, using considerable restraint I have selected a list of wines that includes iconic Hunters, selected Australian regional specialties, and some imported wines that cover a wide range of classic areas.

This list will adapt to the seasons, as well as to vintage variations and availability but it will always focus on offering interesting, high quality wines, which can be enjoyed with great food.

*I have divided the wines into categories according to the body of the wine (light, medium, full bodied etc.). I think this is a good way to match wine and food, as there are fewer 'rules' to worry about.
And we all need less rules!*

*Cheers,
Andrew Margan
Winemaker*
