

2006 Margan Verdelho

TASTINGS

Best Buy Wines

"Verdelho is often a let-down, being overly sweet and lacking concentration. No such quibbles here. This wine from Hunter stalwart Andrew Margan is rich and full of flavour, so peachy you might almost think there was some chardonnay in it..."

It has the soft, round, fruity fullness that characterises the best verdelhos, and some persistence of flavour. Verdelho is also a chameleon, with many guises, but if it tasted like this more often, its stocks would surely rise."

Huon Hooke, April/May 2007

GOURMET TRAVELLER

WINE

