

Margan 2003 Chardonnay

“From one of the newer Hunter Valley producers (established in 1997), this Chardonnay is an agreeable type of wine which weaves together peachy fruit and well-handled oak in good equilibrium. It’s medium-bodied, persistent and very drinkable as a youngster.”

Cuisine

New Zealand, November 2004.