

Margan Limited Release 2003 Barbera

“Winemaker Andrew Margan had a hunch that the Hunter Valley would be a good place to grow the Italian grape, Barbera.

He reckoned the earthy, savoury characters of the region’s red wines would complement the variety’s plummy fruitiness perfectly.

After tasting this, I reckon he’s spot-on.”

Max Allen

Weekend Australian Magazine
June 11-12, 2005

