

Margan 2003 Single Vineyard Barbera

Jeff Collerson
Drink This Column
Daily Telegraph
21.09.05

"This is the first time I've ranked a $20 wine as a bargain buy, but everything is relative and this is the best barbera I've had at this price.

Barbera is Italy's most widely grown grape yet is rare in Australia.

Made by the Hunter's Andrew Margan from Mudgee cuttings, this is true to the variety, having a savoury palate with a wild and funky edge."
