

the key review of wines (the krow)

“To understand the true meaning of my approach to marking out of 100, accept a wine I consider of average quality to be 85, and believe me there is nothing wrong with a wine with 85 points.

Do I think Hunter Valley Semillon the best white wine in Australia? YES

Do I generally prefer Hunter Valley Shiraz to other Australian Shiraz styles? YES”

Tony Keys - Key Review of Wines, May 2009.

Hunter Valley Selection:

Margan Hunter Valley Shiraz 2006 - 92 Points

A very grown up drop and outstanding value.

Margan White Label Hunter Valley Shiraz 2006 - 90 Points

As time moves on, a few more months in bottle will play a part.

Margan Hunter Valley Barbera 2006 - 92 Points

Very good value.

Margan Hunter Valley Merlot 2006 - 90 Points

Very good value.
